Legal Requirements for Companies:

As per the Companies Act, 2013, all companies are required to appoint:

- At least one director who has stayed in India for a total period of not less than one hundred and eighty -two days in the previous calendar year.
- At least one third of the total number of directors on their Board of Directors as Independent Directors.

How Abroader Can Help:

- ✓ Extensive, in-depth experience in international business on the Director Level
- ✓ Experience with compliance and risk mitigation measures Joint Signing Authority
- ✓ Wide network of service providers for finance, law and compliance
- ✓ No Conflict of Interest

Why?

The Companies Act, 2013 has outlined mandatory requirements for companies in terms of appointing Directors for ascertaining corporate governance and transparency. International firms entering the Indian market will be required to comply. As the accountability and scope of responsibility for companies widens, appropriate risk mitigation measures will have to be exercised in appointing the requisite personnel to key strategic positions. Cautious screening and selection of Directors, exercising clarity in the scope of operation and responsibility and taking appropriate mitigation and control measures is crucial for international companies in order to successfully sustain their position in the Indian market space.
